

Addendum to Statement of Defendant on Plea of Guilty

As part of this agreement the Prosecutor may be recommending, and the parties are agreeing to payment of a fine and costs as a punishment and as a deterrent to future criminal conduct.

In accepting this agreement, I agree that I have discussed and considered my current ability to pay these and all my other living costs and debt, and have determined I have the ability to pay.

I have also considered my future ability to pay, and, to the best of my current knowledge, I will have the ability to pay the fine and costs for the foreseeable future.
