- 10.3 Filing of Grievance: If the Association and/or employee believe there may be a grievance regarding specific provisions of this Agreement, then the Association must file said grievance within thirty (30) calendar days of its occurrence. Failure to file the grievance within thirty (30) calendar days of its occurrence results in said grievance being forever waived and lost and no longer grievance at an time. Failure to pursue a grievance to the next step of the grievance procedure results in the last response being the final and binding conclusion of the grievance. To be a valid grievance, the grievance must set forth the facts, the specific sections(s) of the contract which were allegedly violated and the specific remedy requested.

10.4 Nothing shall prohibit an employee or the Association from raising an issue with the Employer and seeking resolution prior to filing a grievance; provided, however, it shall not modify the applicable time limitations in the other sections.

Thereafter, the Association President shall respond in writing to the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days from the receipt of the grievance. If the Employer is not satisfied with the response to the Association President, the matter will be elevated to arbitration in accordance with the procedure contained in this article.

10.6 The formal grievance procedure shall be as follows:

Step 1:

The grievance shall be presented in written form to the Director within thirty (30) calendar days from its occurrence. The Director shall respond in writing within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving said grievance.

Step 2:

The Board of County Commissioners has the option of holding a hearing within a reasonable period of time, issuing a written decision without a hearing within thirty (30) calendar days of submission, or referring the matter to arbitration. If a hearing is held, The Director will be represented and the employee will be represented by an official of the Association. If a hearing is held, the Board shall issue a written decision within thirty (30) working days from the date of the grievance hearing

- b. Notice - Time Limitation: The referring party shall notify the other party in writing by mail of submission to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the Step 2 response. Failure to notify the other party in writing will result in the grievance being forever waived and null and void.
- c. Arbitrator - Selection: After timely notice, the parties shall select an impartial arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days, if possible, after the request is made to arbitrate. If the parties cannot mutually agree on an impartial arbitrator who is able and willing to serve on a timely basis, either party may demand a list of seven (7) qualified persons who are willing to abide by time limitations. A list of impartial arbitrators may be furnished by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), or the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS), or the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC). The party demanding a paid arbitrator shall have the right to determine the organization from which the list of seven (7) names is to be derived.  - (iii) The arbitrator shall consider and decide only the question or issue raised in the initial written grievance. In conducting an arbitration, the arbitrator shall maintain a verbatim record of the testimony either by tape recording or court reporter. If a party requests a court reporter and/or transcription of the official record, said requesting party shall be responsible for paying for the cost of the transcription; provided, however, if the other party is going to rely on the record and/or transcription, then said party shall be responsible for one-half (1/2) the transcription cost and their own copying cost. - 12.4 Employees become eligible for longevity pay after serving for a continuous year. After serving the continuous year each employee will be eligible to receive longevity compensation at the rate of eleven dollars and seventy-two cents ($11.72) per month per year of service. The maximum any employee is eligible for is twenty (20) years of continuous service. At twenty (20) years, the maximum monthly longevity pay an employee would be eligible for is two hundred thirty-four dollars and forty cents ($234.40). As an example, if an employee were continuously employed for ten (10) years by Grant County, the employee would be eligible for one hundred seventeen dollars and twenty cents ($117.20) per month longevity pay.

Such clothing allowance shall be subject to Employer prior approval and will be based on the submission of appropriate receipts. Employees will be eligible for such a clothing allowance only with regard to the work clothing for the employee not currently furnished by the Employer. Such clothing allowance is for replacement or repair of clothing worn on the job. Employees hired within a year are eligible for the clothing allowance the following year.
- 12.9 Employees working at a classification higher than their regular assigned classification shall be paid at the higher rate after ten (10) hours in a workweek retroactive to the first hour if qualified on that piece of equipment. If not qualified, the employee will receive the higher rate of pay after twenty (20) hours worked in a higher classification in a work week.

12.10 An employee working in a lower classification will not suffer reduction in wages unless permanently assigned to that classification.

12.11 The monthly rate of pay for regular part-time employees shall be determined by multiplying the percentage of the workweek worked by the appropriate rate of pay for the classification.

12.12 Seasonal Employee Provisions:

- a. These would be individuals hired on the basis of temporary employees as defined in Article III.
- b. Temporary/Seasonal employees may be entitled to new hire status, if they have the qualifications for a position and if they are a successful applicant for said position. Said employee will have to serve the normal six (6) month probationary period.

Sick leave accruals are calculated on the 15th of each month, and employees must be in pay status fifteen (15) or more calendar days of the month in order to be eligible to accrue sick leave.

An employee accrues eight (8) hours during the initial month of employment if the employee is placed on the payroll on or before the fifteenth (15th) of the month and actually works continuously through the end of the month. An

ARTICLE XVIII - FAMILY & MEDICAL LEAVE

- 18.1 Up to twelve (12) weeks (paid or unpaid) may be granted per twelve (12) month period for qualifying circumstances as determined by the Employer consistent with Federal and State laws. Twelve (12) month period means a rolling twelve (12) month period measured backward from the date leave is taken and continuous with each additional leave day taken. This shall be administered by the Employer. Employees are required to exhaust all accrued paid leave (i.e., vacation, sick leave, compensatory time, etc.) before becoming eligible for an unpaid leave of absence for family leave purposes. When possible or foreseeable, requests for family and/or medical leave shall be submitted to the Employer a minimum of thirty (30) days prior to the date the leave is expected to commence. Violations of this provision shall be subject to the disciplinary process unless circumstances warranted a lesser notice.

ARTICLE XIX - EDUCATION LEAVE

At the discretion of the Employer, employees may be granted leave of absence for educational purposes to attend conferences, seminars, briefing sessions, or other functions of a similar nature that are intended to improve or upgrade the individual's skill or professional ability. Upon completion of the probationary period, an employee's leave record will be credited with the appropriate annual leave. If the employee does not successfully complete the probationary period, annual leave is not earned and not payable.

- 20.4 Annual leave when taken shall be by mutual agreement between the immediate Supervisor and the employee on such schedules as will least interfere with the function of the Department, but which accommodates the desires of the employees to the greatest degree possible. After the first year of employment, all employees shall be required to take a minimum of five (5) consecutive days of annual leave each year.

ADDENDUM A
Salary Administration Procedure

A new hire will be placed at the appropriate salary range at step 1 based on the study and subject to prior review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners. An employee will progress to step 2 after 6 months of successful service. Thereafter, incumbents will progress to next higher steps in annual increments until reaching range maximum.

Exceptions:

New hires may be placed at rates above step 1 in rare instances where the person brings exceptional experience, training, specialized knowledge and/or essential credentials. This may be done subject to prior review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners.

Present employees promoted into a job with a higher band allocation may be placed at the new salary range step that would result in a "promotional" salary increase subject to prior review and recommendation of the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners. Promotional salary increase means the step in the new salary range which provides the employee with an increase in pay not necessarily the same step as the prior salary range step.

In rare instances, severe market pressures on specific jobs may be considered for recruitment of candidates in very high demand subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners. Normally, a new recruit will not be placed in a salary step higher than any present incumbent in the same job class who is performing at a fully competent level except in circumstances where the person brings exceptional experience, training, specialized knowledge and / or essential credentials to the job. This assessment is subject to prior review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners.

Progression Increases:

Incumbents whose salary rate is in a step lower than step 7 and whose performance is entirely satisfactory on a continuing basis as determined by the Elected Official(s) or Department Heads with review by the Human Resources Department, will progress to next higher step at annual salary adjustment time, until their salaries reach step 7.

First Year of Implementation:

Current persons will be paid at the band and step appropriate for their job and years of service in said job in accordance with the study results and subject to review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County commissioners. In cases where the person's current wage is higher than the appropriate step, such persons will be placed into the step which will result in a pay increase at implementation. Incumbents paid at step 7 at implementation will remain at this maximum rate of pay until a salary adjustment is made to the Grant County Salary Structure as determined by the Board of County Commissioners. Incumbents with over one year in their job and not paid at step 7 at implementation will progress to each next step after one year of successful service, as set forth in the Progression Increases section above, until step 7 is reached.

Persons with less than one year service, will progress through the Grant County Salary Structure in accordance with the old pay plan under which they were hired. For those employees hired prior to implementation of the new salary structure, the Employer will adhere to the old pay plan, even though this may mean that those incumbents will progress through the new salary structure in less than 5 years. Progression is subject to review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners.

Present persons whose current salary rates are higher than the adopted range maximum for their salary band will not receive a salary decrease. Their salaries will remain at their present rates until the salary range for their assigned band catches up to their present salary rates. Those persons may be considered for promotion to higher level positions when organizational conditions and an employee's qualifications warrant such allocation subject to review by the Human Resources Department and subject to prior approval by the Board of County Commissioners. (Editorial note: Increase in workloads or changes in the way that work is carried out or performed will not necessarily result in sufficient basis for reclassification.)
