Emergency Medical Services update, Grant County Fire District 5 will no longer be providing service as of June 14th (this is a target date). The New provider will be American Medical Response (AMR) who will be providing service to the same coverage areas as Fire District 5.

Confined Space Rescue, industry has had concerns and questions regarding this issue and the capability of this service. A subcommittee is needed to develop and identify needs as well as funding issues. Moses Lake Fire and Fire District 5 are willing to work together with Industry to provide the needed services.

VI. Future Agenda Items

WSP Role During Haz Mat~Ron Bowen (May)

VII. Presentation

Ed Haller with Burlington Northern Santa Fe gave a briefing on the train derailment on March 6th. The incident occurred 3 miles east of Wilson Creek at approximately 9am, 24 cars were derailed and grain was spilled. The grain and derailed cars were cleaned up and the rail line was operational by 5pm Sunday evening to include replacement of a bent rail.

Thank You Ed for the briefing!

Next meeting:

May 13, 2010 at 11:00am

Respectfully submitted,

Sandi Duffey
