Whenever a regular employee is elected or appointed to a salaried elective office, or is appointed to a salaried appointive office of the State of Washington or of any of its political or municipal subdivisions or corporation other than the County or of the United States or any of its agencies, commission, board or department, the Commission may grant such employee, upon written requests, a leave of absence without pay for the entire length of time that such office is held, or for such shorter, designated time, and upon such terms and conditions as the Commission may deem proper in the particular case, consistent with the best interests of the county and the Civil Service System. Original probationers so elected or appointed shall not be granted such leaves, but shall be dropped from service upon assumption of the office.

If a regular employee so elected or appointed fails to file a request for a leave of absence, or if such request is denied, the employee may be separated from the service upon assumption of the elective or appointive office.

13.04 Return from Leave. At the expiration of the authorized leave of absence, a probationer or regular employee shall resume the same class of work withstanding as determined by these rules.

13.05 Military Leave. See county policy and Washington law relating thereto.

13.06 Filling Vacancy. All temporary employment caused by leave of absence shall be made pursuant to Rule 10.

13.07 Protests. All protests to any action pertaining to leaves of absence shall be filed with the Secretary within ten (10) days of notice of such action. The Secretary shall give due consideration to and take appropriate action on all timely-filed protests.

14. Resignation

14.01 How submitted. Resignation from the service by an employee shall be made in writing and submitted to the appointing authority for approval. The appointing authority shall file a copy of the resignation, if approved, with the Secretary within five (5) days.

14.02 Withdrawal of Resignation. Upon written request by the employee, the appointing authority may permit the withdrawal of a resignation within ten (10) days prior to the effective date of the resignation.

14.03 Involuntary Resignation. Any resignation may be voided and set aside and the employee reinstated or restored to active duty by order of the Commission upon its determination that the resignation was made involuntarily or under duress or coercion, after giving the appointing authority reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter. Such action by the Commission may only be taken upon the written petition of the resigned employee filed with the Secretary ten (10) days from the effective date of the resignation. If no such petition is filed within the ten (10) day limit, a resignation shall be conclusively presumed to have been made voluntarily and without duress or coercion.

14.04 Implied Resignation. The appointing authority may presumptively consider any employee to have impliedly resigned upon finding that such employee has been absent from duty without leave or authorization or has failed to report for duty following the expiration or termination of any suspension for five (5) or more consecutive working days or has quit or orally resigned and has been absent from duty for three (3) or more consecutive working days without leave or authorization. An employee will not be determined to have resigned under this rule until five (5) days after proof of service of a written notice by registered or certified mail to the employee's last known address as filed with the Personnel Manager. No resignation order shall take effect if, prior thereto, the employee reports for active duty, applies for restoration or reinstatement, or otherwise gives notice to the appointing authority or the Personnel Manager which, in the judgment of the Commission, rebuts the presumption of resignation.

14.05 Return to Eligible Register Following Resignation. (See Rule 9.03)

15. Discipline and Discharge

15.01 Suspension.

15.01.01 The appointing authority may suspend a subordinate, with or without pay, for a period not to exceed 240 hours for good cause.

15.01.02 Any deprivation by the appointing authority of any vacation or other paid leave, compensatory time-off or other privilege involving pay or compensation either directly or indirectly, to which an employee is otherwise entitled under law and these Rules, shall be deemed to be a suspension without pay and shall be subject to the above provisions.

15.02 Demotion – Discharge.

15.02.01 The appointing authority may discharge an employee or demote an employee to a lower class for cause. An employee so demoted shall lose all rights to the higher class. If the employee has not had previous standing in the lower class, such demotion shall not displace any other regular employee or any probationer.

15.02.02 The Secretary or Commission shall be satisfied as to the ability of such demoted employee to perform the duties of the lower class. The demoted employee may be required to actually and serve actively a trial period in the class to which demoted, for such time and upon such terms and conditions as the head of the department may provide in the demotion order, for the sole purpose of determining that he is capable of satisfactorily performing the functions and duties of such class.

15.02.03 Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period or upon the effective date of the demotion if no such period is required, the demoted employee shall have the status, rank and standing of the lower class to which demoted, and such class and the department shall be deemed to be his regular class and department for purposes of these Rules until an authorized change is made.

- a. Demotion of an employee to a lower class for good cause may be made by the appointing authority. An employee so demoted shall lose all rights to the higher class.
- b. If the employee has not had previous standing in the lower class, such demotion shall not displace any other regular employee or any probationer. The Secretary or Commission shall be satisfied as to the ability of such demoted employee to perform the duties of the lower class and shall require the completion of a probationary period.

15.03.04 Dishonest, disgraceful, or prejudicial conduct;

15.03.05 Drunkenness or use of intoxicating liquors, narcotics, or any other habit-forming drug, liquid, or preparation to such extent that the use thereof interferes with the efficiency or mental or physical fitness of the employee, or which precludes the employee from properly

 - 16.02.02 The employee may have legal counsel or union representation present at a pre-disciplinary hearing, but such counsel or representation may not interfere with the actions of the appointing authority.
 - 16.02.03 The department's explanation of the department's evidence at the pre-disciplinary hearing shall be sufficient to apprise the employee of the basis for the proposed action. This rule, however, shall not be construed to limit the employer at subsequent hearing from presenting a more detailed and complete case, including presentation of witnesses and documents not available at the pre-disciplinary hearing.
 - 16.02.04 Should the appointing authority determine to discipline following the pre-disciplinary procedure, written notice of discipline shall be given to the employee. Such notice shall include the charges against the employee and a general statement of the evidence supporting the charges.

- 16.02.05 The commission shall not consider, on appeal, any basis for disciplinary action not previously presented to the employee except the appointing authority may serve notice on the employee and inform the Commission of any subsequent violations as they become known.

17. Hearings

The notice of appeal shall also contain a brief description of the facts giving rise to the appeal and a concise statement of the reason for the appeal. Forms provided by the Commission may be used for such notice but are not required.

17.03 Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies.

- 17.03.01 The Secretary may (when not inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement) direct the employee to exhaust available administrative procedures regarding a disciplinary matter before hearing the matter.

- 17.03.02 If the employee exhausts the available administrative procedures and continues to believe that good cause has not been shown, the employee may within ten (10) days after the final step of the procedure request the Secretary to return the appeal to the Commission for hearing.

17.04 Authority of Secretary-Chief Examiner and Staff.

- 17.04.01 The Secretary-Chief Examiner to the Commission shall have the authority to make orders of preliminary matters, including motions

The Secretary-Chief Examiner may also conduct prehearing settlement conferences (in order to encourage resolution of contested matters), issue subpoenas, and note depositions.

- 17.04.02 The Commission may authorize the Commission staff to investigate any reports or appeals relating to the enforcement or application of the Civil Service or those rules which do not involve a disciplinary proceeding. The staff shall report the results of the investigation to the Commission in an open meeting. On the basis of such report, the Commission shall either dismiss the report or appeal as being without basis or set the matter for a full hearing.
- 17.04.03 As an aid to investigations authorized by the Commission, The Secretary-Chief Examiner may subpoena any documents that would be discoverable for purposes of hearing preparation and may take depositions by tape recorder of any person who may have relevant knowledge. Depositions so taken shall be kept as part of the records of the Commission.
- 17.05 Appeals –Initial Review. The Secretary-Chief Examiner shall review all appeals to determine whether the employee has timely filed an appeal and whether the action appealed is a final action. Upon a determination that the appeal is not timely, the Secretary-Chief Examiner shall issue a written order of dismissal with prejudice, setting for the basis of the dismissal. In the case of an action that is not final, the appeal shall be stayed until such action becomes final. Such orders may be appealed to the Commission.
- 17.06 Appeals – Notice of Hearing. Upon receipt of a notice of appeal, the Commission staff shall forward a copy of the notice to other affected parties. As soon as possible thereafter, but in any event within ten (10) days, a hearing before the Commission shall be set, with each party afforded not fewer than twenty (20) day notice of such hearing. Subsequent hearings on the same appeal shall have one week’s notice unless waived by the parties. All parties may agree to waive the notice provisions and time limits provided by this section. (In counties subject to Chapter 41.14 RCW, the hearings must be held within thirty (30) days of Commission receipt of appeal.)
- 17.07 Appeals – Authority of Department. The exercise of jurisdiction by the Commission over a matter does not preclude the party from withdrawing, modifying or otherwise compromising the matter prior to the matter going to hearing. Upon resolution of a matter prior to hearing, any party may request the dismissal of the matter. A stipulation signed by both parties should be submitted to the Commission prior to such dismissal.
- 17.08 Service of Process – Papers.

Every other paper shall be served by the party filing the notice, document or paper.

- 17.08.02 All notices, documents or papers served by either the Commission or a party shall be served upon all counsel of record at the time of such filing and upon parties not represented by counsel. - 17.08.04 Papers required to be filed with the Commission shall be deemed filed upon actual receipt of the papers by the Commission staff at the Commission office. All papers except the original appeal notice shall be served with the original and three copies. Documentary evidence is not required to be filed but, rather, provided at the hearing.
- 17.08.05 An appellant or petitioner is responsible for notifying the Commission in writing of any change in mailing or street address and telephone number. Failure to so notify the Commission shall constitute a waiver of service and notice under these rules.
- 17.09 Discovery.
- 17.09.01 Parties to a proceeding are required to provide to each other reasonable access and discovery to all relevant information concerning the matter before the Commission. Any questions concerning relevancy or access shall be resolved by order of the Secretary.

- 17.10.02 Upon application of any party or his/her representative, the Secretary shall issue to such party subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses or the production of evidence in such proceeding. The party requesting the subpoena is responsible for having said subpoena properly served. Such requests for subpoenas shall be submitted to the Commission offices at least three (3) days prior to the hearing.
- 17.10.03 Service of subpoena shall be made by serving a copy of the subpoena on the person named therein.
- 17.10.04 The person serving the subpoena shall make proof of service by filing the subpoena at the Commission office, and if such service has not been acknowledged by the witness, the person serving the subpoena shall make an affidavit of service. Failure to file proof of service does not affect the validity of service.
- 17.10.05 Upon motion promptly made by a party or by the person to whom the subpoena is directed, and upon notice to the party on whose behalf the subpoena was issued, the Commission may:
- a. Quash or modify the subpoena if it is reasonable or requires evidence not relevant to any matter in issue, or
 - b. Condition denial of a motion to quash or modify upon just and reasonable conditions.
- 17.10 Burden of Proof. At any hearing on appeal from a demotion, suspension or termination, the disciplinary authority shall have the burden of showing that its action was in good faith for cause. - 17.11 Evidence.
- 17.11.01 Subject to other provision of these rules, all competent and relevant evidence shall be admissible. The Commission may exclude inadmissible evidence and may order cumulative evidence discontinued in its discretion, either with or without objection. A party objecting to the introduction or exclusion of evidence shall state the grounds of such objection at the time such evidence is offered or excluded. No such objection shall be deemed waived by further participation in the hearing.

- 17.11.04 At any hearing before the Commission when documentary exhibits are to be offered into evidence, copies shall be furnished to the opposing party, to each Commission member, and to the Secretary-Chief Examiner.
- 17.11.05 Parties are encouraged to stipulate to the admissibility of documentary exhibits. To further this end, parties will make requests of other parties for such stipulation no later than three (3) days in advance of the hearing, barring unusual circumstances. The party to whom the request is made shall respond no later than one (1) day prior to the hearing.
- 17.11.06 An employee has the right to appear before the Commission with or without counsel and to be heard in the employee's defense.
- 17.12 Deliberation. The commission may deliberate in closed (executive) session when taking a disciplinary or other quasi-judicial case under advisement. No person shall attempt to convey any information or opinion to the Commission concerning any matter on appeal, other than in open hearing.
- 17.13 Decision. In any appeal, the Commission shall issue a decision, including findings of fact, conclusions of law, and an order, to each party or counsel of record for each party. A decision shall be issued within ten (10) days of the close of the hearing of an appeal or other proceeding heard only by the Commission. Absent the consent of an appellant to an extension of time, failure to issue a decision within the time prescribed shall result in an appeal being sustained.
- 17.13.01 When a decision has been issued by the Commission, the appellant may not thereafter request arbitration of the same matter.
- 17.13.02 The appellant may appeal, to the superior court of the county wherein he resides, a decision of the Commission, according to the provisions of RCW 41.14.120.
- 17.14 Remedies. The commission may issue such remedial orders as deemed appropriate.
- 17.15 Reconsideration. A party may move for reconsideration by the Commission only on the basis of fraud, mistake, or misconception of facts. Such motion must be filed with the Commission within ten (10) days of the decision of the Commission. Such motion for reconsideration shall be decided on affidavits, absent special showing that testimony is necessary.
- 17.16 Waiver. Upon stipulation of all parties to a proceeding, and upon a showing that the purposes of the rules or ordinances of the County would be better served, the Commission may waive the requirements of any of these rules.
