Order of Appearance on Ballots and in Voters’ Pamphlet

The order of candidates’ names on the Primary Election ballot and in the Primary Election local voters’ pamphlet is determined by lot drawing. The lot drawing occurs after the close of filing on Friday, May 20, 2022. The process is open to the public and begins after the candidate filings have been proofed for accuracy. (RCW 29A.36.131)

In the General Election, the candidate with the most votes in the Primary Election will be listed first on the ballot, as well as in the General Election local voters’ pamphlet.

If no Primary Election is held for an office, candidates will appear in lot draw order on the General Election ballot.
The Administrative Rules --
What the law says

RCW 29A.32.230 requires the Auditor to adopt and publish administrative rules governing the format and content of the local voters' pamphlet. These rules must include: (a) Limits on the length and deadlines for submission of candidates' statements; (b) the basis for rejecting all or any part of a candidates' statement; and (c) an administrative appeal process in the case of such rejection.

Submission Deadlines

The deadline to submit your local voters’ pamphlet information online is Friday, May 27, 2022 at 5:00 p.m.

Basis for Rejection

All or any part of a candidates' statement may be rejected by the Elections Division if it includes biographical information, statements, photos, or contact information that:

- Is obscene;
- Is libelous;
- Contains a commercial advertisement;
- Contains matter prohibited by law from distribution through the mail;
- Contains matter not limited to the candidate himself or herself or the political office;
- Contains matter that is otherwise inappropriate or that does not comply with applicable law; or
- Was received after the submittal deadline.

Photos will be rejected that do not meet the statutory and administrative criteria outlined on page 12.
Helpful Tips

The candidates' statement portion of the local voters’ pamphlet is your opportunity to introduce yourself to the voters. It can be thought of as your resume to the voters.

Do:
- Offer your vision to the voters. Be positive.
- Describe what you want to accomplish, if elected.
- Describe what makes you an excellent candidate.

Don’t:
- make a statement that is obscene; libelous
- Contains matter that is otherwise inappropriate or that does not comply with applicable law

As part of your statement you may wish to explain:
- Who – Who you are.
- What – What you will do if elected.
- When – The timeframe for your goals or accomplishments.
- Where – You will make changes.
- Why – Are you the best candidate for the office?
- How – You will make changes or accomplish your goals for the office.

Submit your Local Voters’ Pamphlet information online

You may submit your voters’ pamphlet information when you file for office or you may submit later. If you choose to submit your voters’ pamphlet information later, you will receive an email after your filing has been approved with a link to submit your statement and photo.

To meet the deadline, candidates should begin the upload process as early as possible after they file for office. There is no benefit to delaying. Local voters’ pamphlet submissions are kept confidential. A candidate’s submission will not be released until the deadline for submission of all statements has passed and the submissions have been approved by the Election’s Office.

Any candidate who experiences technical problems should call the Elections Office immediately. Technical difficulties will not excuse candidates from meeting the deadline.

You may NOT submit a new statement for the General Election. The same local voters’ pamphlet information submitted will be used for both the Primary Election and General Election.

Local Voters’ Pamphlet Publication

Grant County publishes an official local voters’ pamphlet for all elections. It is available in both printed and electronic form on the Elections Office website.

In state primary elections, as a courtesy, Grant County may re-print state offices and candidates in the local voters’ pamphlet. The Office of the Secretary of State is responsible for accepting and approving voters’ pamphlet information for state offices, congressional offices, legislative offices and certain judicial offices. The requirements and rules for these statements may differ from the laws and local rules for Grant County candidates.

It must contain one valid (registered voter signature for each dollar of the filing fee. For example, if the filing fee for the office you are seeking is $200.00, the petition must contain 200 valid signatures of registered voters who reside in the district/jurisdiction of the office you are seeking. You should gather extra signatures to allow for invalid signers. No signatures may be submitted after Friday, May 20, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. Candidates must submit all signatures upon initial submission and may not supplement the signatures later. Petitions cannot be combined with money for the filing fee.
Write-in Candidates
RCW 29A.24.311, 320, 29A.60.021

Any person who desires to be a write-in candidate must file a declaration of candidacy not later than 8:00 p.m. on the day of the primary or election. A write-in declaration of candidacy is timely if filed by this deadline.

Write-in candidates that file more than 18 days before an election do not pay a filing fee.

Write-in votes will only be tallied when they impact the outcome of the election.

Votes cast for write-in candidates who have filed declarations need only specify the name of the candidate in the appropriate location on the ballot and fill in the oval to be counted.

No person may file a write-in declaration:
  • For the General Election, if the candidate lost the Primary Election, either as a candidate or a write-in candidate.
  • A valid write-in declaration has already been filed for another office.
  • The candidate already appears on the ballot for another office.

No write-in candidate filing under RCW 29A.24.311 will be included in any voters’ pamphlet unless that candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the General Election ballot.
A void in candidacy occurs if, after the regular filing week but prior to the day of the primary:

- No candidate has filed for office.
- All candidates who filed have withdrawn, or
- All candidates who have filed died or have been disqualified.

There is no void in candidacy if there is at least one viable candidate.

If a void in candidacy exists, a special three-day filing period will be opened. Notice of the special three day filing period will be given by notifying the media.

If a void in candidacy is filled by special filing period, no primary will be held. All candidates who file during the special filing period appear on the General Election ballot.

When an incumbent resigns, dies, or is disqualified mid-term, and candidate filings have not been held for the office, one of the following occurs:

- If the Elections Office is notified of a vacancy before regular candidate filing, the office will be included in regular filing.
- If the vacancy in office occurs on or after regular candidate filing has begun, no election is held for that office. The jurisdiction will fill the vacant position with an appointment until the next election for that office.

If no candidate files during the regular filing period and subsequent special filing period, an election for that office will not be held until the next applicable election for the office.

If, after the special three-day filing period has passed and no candidate has filed for any city, town, or district position, the incumbent continues to serve until a successor is elected at the next election when such positions are voted upon.
Primary Election Guidelines

Partisan Offices
RCW 29A.52, 29A.36, WAC 434-230-015 and 045

A partisan office is an office for which a candidate may choose to indicate a political party preference on his or her Declaration of Candidacy. Federal, statewide, legislative and some county positions are partisan offices.

A Primary Election will be held for each partisan office open for election, regardless of the number of candidates filing.

Candidates for partisan office may state a political party that he or she prefers. A candidate’s preference does not indicate endorsement by the party. No changes to party preference will be accepted after the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy.

It is the voter’s option to vote for partisan candidates of their choice and/or vote for any or all nonpartisan races and issues.

On the Primary Election ballot, candidates shall be listed in the order determined by lot drawing.

The two candidates who receive the greatest number of votes cast will advance to the General Election ballot regardless of party preferences. The name of the top vote getter will appear first on the ballot.

Anyone who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for Precinct Committee Officer. A candidate must file an online Declaration of Candidacy form. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself/herself to be a member of a political party at the time of filing.

Precinct Committee Officers will be elected at the Primary Election.

Only contested PCO races will appear on the ballot, and write-in candidates are not allowed. If only one person files for office, he or she is deemed elected. If no one files for office, the position is filled by the county chair of the county central committee of the appropriate political party.
No local voters’ pamphlet information required. (This office is not included in the local voters’ pamphlet.)

Term of Office and Vacancies
The term of office is two years. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation, or failure to elect), the chairperson of the County Central Committee fills the vacancy by appointment.

Duties of a Precinct Committee Officer
Each officer is a member of the County Central Committee. The committee has the authority to nominate persons to fill vacancies for a state, legislative or county office. Also, they may elect members to the State Central Committee. They participate in party activities and represent the party.

Nonpartisan Offices
RCW 29A.52.220, 35.61.050, 36.69.090

A nonpartisan office is an office for which candidates do not indicate a party preference. All judicial and most special purpose offices are nonpartisan offices. No party preference appears on the ballot for these races.

A Primary Election will be held if three or more candidates file in any nonpartisan office, of a city, town, school, special purpose district or district court office. The two candidates with the most votes continue to the General Election. The name of the top votegetter will appear first on the ballot.
Judicial Offices State Constitution Art IV Sec 29

Judicial candidates will only appear on the Primary Election ballot when three or more candidates file for the office. The candidates’ names will appear in lot draw order.

See the chart below for more judicial office ballot information.

Mandatory/Automatic Recounts RCW 29A.64

An automatic recount applies to candidates and statewide measures and will occur if less than 2,000 votes and also less than 1/2 of 1% of the votes cast for that race separate candidates or issues. The recount is applicable only to candidates apparently nominated or elected and the closest defeated opponent. The automatic recount will tally only votes for the position or measure in question and will be conducted without charge to any candidate.

For statewide elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 1,000 votes and also less than 1/4 of 1% of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually.

For all other elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 150 votes and also less than 1/4 of 1% of total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually. An alternative counting method may be used if both candidates agree in writing and the procedure is suited to the ballot system that was used for casting the votes for the office.

If a mandatory recount is required for a candidate in a jurisdiction, the costs of the recount are billed as a direct cost to the jurisdiction.

Local Measure, Question, or Issue

Automatic recounts do not apply to non-statewide ballot measures, such as levy, bond and other questions or issues.

Requested Recounts

All requested recounts must be submitted no later than two business days after the certification of the election. A deposit equal to $.15 (machine recount) or $.25 (manual recount) per ballot by certified check or cash is required. Final cost of the recount will be determined by the canvassing board and may be less or more than the deposit.
I won the election and have been certified the winner. What do I need to do next?

RCW 29A.04.133

Oath or Affirmation of Office

After the election results have been certified, every person elected to an office in the State of Washington, including jurisdictions within counties, cities, and towns, is required by the Washington constitution and/or statutes to take an oath or affirmation of office prior to serving. The oath or affirmation of office must comply with the appropriate statute or, if none is specified for that office, in accordance with the oath or affirmation set forth in RCW 29A.04.133. Depending on the office and tradition, the oath or affirmation of office may be taken or attested either verbally or in writing.

How should the oath or affirmation of office be administered to a candidate?

RCW 29A.04.133 requires that the oath or affirmation of office be administered and certified by any officer or notary public authorized to administer oaths, without charge. Six positions are specifically qualified by statute to administer oaths:

- Judges and Notary Publics
  RCW 5.28.010
- Clerk of the Courts
  RCW 2.32.050
- County Commissioners
  RCW 36.32.120
- County Auditors or Deputies
  RCW 36.22.030
- Town Clerks
  RCW 35.27.220
- School Officials
  RCW 28A.343.360

Where to obtain a blank oath or affirmation of office

- Grant County Elections (office).

Filing your oath or affirmation of office

Once the oath or affirmation of office has been taken for a local or county office, the original must be filed with the Elections Office. Elected officials may wish to complete a second original oath for retention or display purposes.

Oaths of office for supreme court justice, court of appeals, and superior court judge are filed with the Secretary of State.
Bond
A qualified candidate may also be required to post a bond. If so, it is not the responsibility of the County Auditor to verify that such bond has been posted.

To learn more about public office
Newly elected officials may wish to contact their local city or town clerk, school superintendent as well as fellow council members and commissioners to learn more about their jurisdiction and the duties required. See the tables below for more information regarding oaths and the timelines for assuming office.

You’ve decided to run for office…

Now get to know the PDC

First: Introduce yourself.
Several actions make you a candidate in the eyes of the law and prompt the requirement for filing reports with the Public Disclosure Commission. For candidates who did not previously announce their candidacy, raise funds or spend money on their campaigns, the declaration of candidacy is the triggering event.

Within two weeks of filing that declaration, most candidates must register their campaigns (C-1 report) and disclose personal financial affairs (F-1 report). (Exceptions apply in cases where candidates are running for office in small jurisdictions and don’t plan to spend more than $5,000.) All reports must be filed electronically.

Second: Consider your (reporting) options.
Candidates who are required to register their campaigns can choose mini or full reporting. Choose wisely – candidates who initially opt for mini reporting but then switch to full reporting face deadlines for doing so and must retroactively document their contributions and expenditures.

Mini reporting is available to candidates who plan to raise (from others and their own funds) and spend no more than $5,000 and who will receive no more than $500 from any one contributor other than themselves. Those candidates do not have to file contribution and expenditure reports, but they must keep records of that activity and allow public inspection of campaign books just prior to an election.

Candidates who choose full reporting must abide by state and local contribution limits, but have no cap on how much they may raise and spend.

Three: Know your limits.
Candidates using mini reporting may not raise more than $5,000 (including their own funds) and cannot accept more than $500 from a single donor. Most other candidates face limits on contributions that vary by office sought and type of donor. If a candidate is on the ballot twice (for example, in the primary and general), the limits apply per election. Additional limits apply in the 21 days before the general election.

Four: Meet your deadlines.
Candidates who choose full reporting must file reports showing donations, in-kind contributions, expenditures and debt. They face deadlines for submitting those reports, and the reporting windows shrink as the campaign season progresses.
